THE NEW COLLEGE

MISSISSIPPI WOMAN'S COLLEGE IS NOW COEDUCATIONAL

Mississippi Woman's College is now a coeducational senior liberal arts college, effective January 25, 1954. This is by action of the Mississippi Baptist Convention at its 1953 session, taken on the recommendation of the Board of Trustees and administration of the college.

The entire program of the new school is being rewritten so as to meet the needs of both young men and young women. In all departments changes are being made in order to make the new college acceptable and attractive to young men and women alike.

MISSISSIPPI WOMAN'S COLLEGE IS AN APPROVED TEACHER TRAINING COLLEGE

Mississippi Woman's College is approved by the State Department of Education as a teacher training college. Our credits are also approved and recommended by the University of Mississippi to all colleges and universities outside of Mississippi. The graduates in education from Woman's College have the same professional status in Mississippi as the University. Woman's College has been surveyed and accredited by the Mississippi Accreditation Committee.

MISSISSIPPI WOMAN'S COLLEGE IS AN APPROVED VETERAN'S TRAINING COLLEGE

Mississippi Woman's College is approved by the Veteran's Administration for veterans under Public Law 346 and 550.
